NOTES OF THE TURF.

Last Friday's San Francisco Examiner says: St. Gatien, winner of the Derby in England (at least a dead-beater with Harvester), arrived at Rancho del Paso, his new home, last night, safe and sound. He is the sire of the unbeaten Meddler and many others. As we already have Ormonde, Californians can boast of having two winners of the Derby within the confines of the Golden State. The brother to Ormonde, Ormello and Conroy, also by Ben d'Or, which John Mackey recently purchased for J. B. Haggin in England, will arrive shortly.

Prices at the big Easton sale now in progress at Lexington have in some cases no doubt been disappointing to owners, but on the whole a satisfactory average has been obtained. The real gems of the sale are yet to be offered and since many buyers with long purses are in attendance, it is more than probable that there will be some sensational bidding when the horses they covet are brought under the hammer.

The Woodard & Shanklin sale at Lexington next week will hold all the buyers now attending the Easton sale and draw many others in addition. Several from Chicago intend going Friday, the general impression being that in the list of useful horses in training that is in the catalogue rare bargains may be picked up.

The promising lightweight jockey, O'Leary, whose mount, Deceptive, fell with him at Benning Monday, was so badly injured that he is laid up in one of the Washington hospitals, with a strong probability that it will be many days before he will be able to ride again.

W. P. Magrane's string with What or Lou and Montgomery at the head, has reached San Francisco safe and well. It is a string likely to figure quite extensively in 'Frisco racing after the horses have become fully acclimated.

Barney Schreiber was in the Baldwin Hotel fire. In answer to a telegraphic query last night he answered, "I escaped just in time. No injuries."

Galen Brown's mare Treachery has fallen so lame that she may not be fit to race for some time to come.

 Start bad. Won pulled up. The going was as if made to Gauntlet's order. He had clear sailing, too, and was the best. Los Medanos ran to the notch. Rainier is not a good mud horse. Watch him on a good track with light weight. Lime Water was nearly left and closed a lot of ground. He is a mudlark. So is Don't Tell. Tab her.
 Scratched—Elizabeth R., 103; Casdale, 113.
 Los Medanos, place, 1 to 2. Rainier, show, evens.

Winner—B. c., by El Rio Key—Ogalena.
 Start fair. Won easily. Pongo was almost left and had to be far the best to win. Sokombeo had plenty of speed, but failed at the end. He favors mud. The race will do him good. Yorick wants a longer route. He is a stayer, but was short.

NOTICE.

DAILY RACING FORM is a publication which is built by its staff from day to day. Its "form", and the numbers of its charts are copyrighted. The chart numbers are so arranged that legal identification is easy of proof. The selections and handicap figures attached to entries are arranged on the same basis. The latter come from the work of four experts after the telegraphic receipt of charts and entries. All persons are warned not to use said chart or index numbers, selections or handicap figures.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

Last Thursday a young man arrived at the track with $13 in his pocket. He had never seen a race and did not know the difference between Wainwright and Tod Sloan as riders. His first bet, $5, was on Leiter, who won at odds of 60 to 1. In the second event he put $50 on Bonnie Ione at odds of 7 to 1, and raked down $400. Then he had $40 on Sateuma, which was away from the post poorly. Considering that luck had changed, he suspended operations for the afternoon, $610 to the good on that $13.—San Francisco Examiner.

The winning sire list on the English turf reads: Galopin, £21,598; Bona Vista, £15,554; Gallinule, £15,354; Ayrshire, £14,827; St. Simon, £14,683; Donovan, £13,046; St. Serf, £10,680; Janissary, £10,311; Common, £10,053; Enthusiast, £9,372; Martagon, £8,710; Amphion, £8,641; Hampton (dead), £8,317; Strawberry, £8,316; Sheen, £7,951; Bend Or, £7,108.
